

Autism Friendly Day

at

Mystic Aquarium

April 6, 2013

Mystic Aquarium is kicking off Autism Awareness Month with Autism Speaks to raise awareness of autism with an Autism Friendly Day featuring amenities geared for families effected by Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Enjoy a special early opening at 8:30am to see exhibits and to get acclimated before we open to the public.

Bring your family for a day featuring the following from, 9:30am to 1:30pm:

- a quiet room with Yogibo chairs
- an outdoor “free play” zone
- supportive volunteers at hands-on exhibits

Present this flyer to receive one free general child admission with each full paid general adult admission.

Must be a family affected by autism to qualify for discount. Visit for two additional days with your ticket! Have your admission ticket validated before you leave the aquarium and use it to return for the next two consecutive days! Cannot be combined with any other offer. Valid April 6, 2013 only.
